NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME

National Service Scheme (NSS) in Sir C R Reddy College of Engineering, Eluru is implemented through an active college-level NSS unit that links the JNTUK University which promotes social responsibility, community engagement, and environmental awareness among engineering students.

NSS UNIT AND OBJECTIVES

- The college has a dedicated NSS unit that works to create social and environmental awareness, aligning with the broader NSS goals of developing student personality through community service.
- NSS activities focus on sensitising students to community needs in and around Eluru, encouraging values of service, discipline, and ethical citizenship within the technical education context.

ADMINISTRATIVE SETUP AND COORDINATION

- The NSS unit functions under the overall supervision of the Principal, with a designated NSS Programme Officer who coordinates planning, execution, and reporting of all NSS activities in the college.
- The unit is registered under the JNTUK NSS framework and collaborates with external organisations such as the Indian Red Cross Society and local clubs (such as Helapuri Rural Lions Club etc.,) for major outreach programmes.

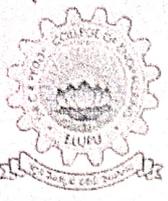

MAJOR PROGRAMMES AND ACTIVITIES

- Regular NSS activities at Sir C R Reddy College of Engineering include blood donation camps, orthopaedic and health camps, and environmental awareness and tree plantation programmes often conducted in the campus and nearby localities.
- The NSS unit also organizes thematic events like medical camps for specific diseases (such as thalassemia and sickle cell anaemia) and joint programmes with neighbouring institutions, reinforcing the college's motto of quality service and value-based education.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION AND IMPLEMENTATION PROCESS

- Students enrol in NSS through the college unit and participate in scheduled regular activities and special drives as notified through NSS circulars during the academic year.
- Student Volunteers who complete successfully required service hours and camps receive certificates that support their academic and career profiles.
- For each event, the Programme Officer issues a circular, coordinates logistics, collects student participation records and signatures, and forwards reports to the college administration and concerned NSS authorities as part of formal implementation and documentation.
