Anti-Ragging Committee Annual Report 2023-24

One of the important committees set up to maintain a sound environment and pursue educational goals and objectives is the Anti-Ragging committee. Students can voice their concerns about ragging on a secure, private forum by contacting the Anti-Ragging Cell. The purpose of the Anti-Ragging Cell is to monitor and put an end to any instances of ragging that are reported or occur in areas where students congregate, such as classrooms, canteens, buses, hostels, and grounds. In order to encourage students to quickly approach the members of the Anti-ragging Cell for assistance, hoardings with their names and phone numbers are posted at strategic locations across the institution. The college website and notice board both feature the anti-ragging committee's information. CCTV To monitor student activity on college property, cameras were placed in strategic locations throughout the campus and dorm. The monitor that is situated in the principal's office also contributes to the continuous monitoring of any illegal action by the students. In order to keep an eye on the students, staff personnel paid unexpected visits to the hostels.

The principal spoke to recently admitted students during the first semester. The anti-ragging circular's provision was thoroughly explained, with emphasis placed on the penalty intended for the offense. Additionally, faculty members assist recently admitted students in their particular classes. The staff members stationed at different parts of the campus are tasked with keeping an eye on the incidents. The members use various means to educate the students as a whole about the threat of ragging and related punishments.

As a result of this no single complaint regarding ragging is received by the committee. However awareness campaign about ragging is the regular practice in the campus.
