At the beginning of the academic year, as part of our regular practice, we have conducted an Anti-Ragging awareness programme on 28-09-2024. by the heads of all departments and faculty members visited the classes of senior students in their respective departments to raise awareness about the following:

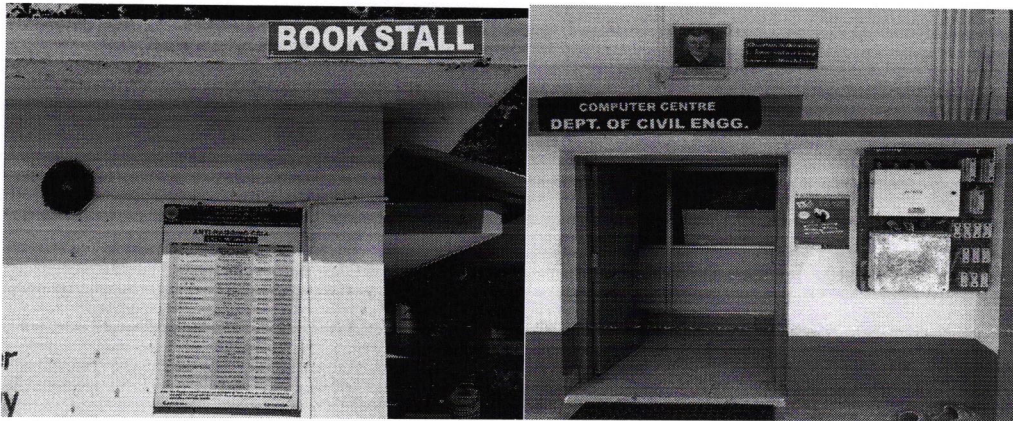

- What Constitute ragging
  - The legal consequences of ragging
  - Anti-Ragging Committee and Anti-Ragging Squad reconstituted for the academic year 2024-25
  - The procedure for filing online Anti-Ragging affidavit
  - Details providing guidance to students in case of ragging
- Presentations covering all of the above information were delivered by the Chief Guest of the program to the students. Students were urged not to engage in any such harmful practices and to actively participate in making the campus ragging-free.
  - All students have filed online Anti-Ragging affidavits, and the reference numbers have been duly collected.

Anti-Ragging Act & Guidelines Displayed at Prominent Places

Raising Awareness on Anti-Ragging

In addition to the measures mentioned above, it was decided to continue our regular practices, such as:

- Housing first-year students and senior students in separate hostel blocks to prevent any incidents of ragging.
  - Ensuring the proper functioning of CCTV cameras installed in vital areas.
  - An online feedback forms is uploaded on the college website for reporting grievances related to ragging.
- The resident wardens of both boys' and girls' hostels regularly monitored student behaviour and interactions during meal times, fostering a secure and welcoming atmosphere for first-year students.

The effective involvement of the Anti-Ragging Committee, Anti-Ragging Squad, and all staff, coupled with the proactive measures taken to ensure the safety and comfort of newly enrolled students, successfully maintained a homely and friendly atmosphere on the Sir C. R. Reddy College of Engineering campus, reinforcing our commitment to a 'RAGGING FREE' environment.

It is also worth noting that 'NO CASES' of ragging were reported on campus during the academic year 2024-25. This achievement underscores our unwavering commitment to creating a safe, inclusive, and supportive learning environment for all the students. The dedication of the Anti-Ragging Squad, Vigilance Team, and all involved staff members has been instrumental in upholding these standards, ensuring that Sir C. R. Reddy College of Engineering remains a model institution in fostering a culture of respect and safety.
