Circulation to: All First Year Students & staff for n.a.

Sri R O Sarma is a learned man, particularly in the field of English Language and Literature. He wrote several books and his main motto is to develop communication Skills among the student community. His interest in the subject of his speech attracted the attention of all the children.

He made all the students involved physically, mentally and psychologically in the subject matter. He made students also participate in the discussions which went on a very lively basis. His fluency in English speaking made the students awestruck.
